Twenty First Sunday of Ordinary Time

Intentionally and consistently offering the Lord the best of our Time, Talent, and Treasure through a stewardship way of life is a form of spiritual discipline. It teaches us to become ever more aware of God's constant provision for us and keeps us on the narrow path towards the kingdom of God.

The more we embrace this way of life, the more we can be "trained" by the Lord. This is not a burden; it is a privilege. Holiness of life, true discipleship, is meant for everyone, young and old, rich and poor, powerful and lowly. (Stewardship Reflection, Catholic Stewardship Consultants, Inc. 2019/8/14).

Job Seekers: There are various openings available throughout the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese. Log on to www.dioceseaj.org/careers to see the openings and to apply.

OLV Professional Network: Are you an OLV parishioner who is currently working, or has previously worked, in a professional field?
