Support Your Parish, Catholic Ministries Drive, or Catholic Charities through a Qualified Charitable Distribution from your IRA Account

As the 2021 tax year winds down, owners of individual retirement accounts (IRAs) might consider combining the 2021 tax benefits of charitable giving with a qualified charitable distribution from your IRA. If you are at least 70 ½ years of age, you can make an IRA distribution of up to $100,000 to a qualified charitable organization and the distributed amount is excluded from your gross income for federal income tax purposes. In addition, the distribution will count towards your required minimum distribution amount for the tax year.

For the distribution to count as a qualified charitable distribution, you must meet the following requirements. First, you must have a letter of acknowledgement from the charity recipient of your charitable contribution. Second, the trustee of the IRA must transfer the funds directly to the charitable organization (the distribution cannot be made to you first). Third, the charity recipient of the qualified charitable distribution must be a 501 (c)(3) organization that is eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions.

If you feel a QCD is the right strategy for you, please seek the aid of a qualified tax preparer for guidance. Questions? Please reach out to Heather Foor at (814) 695-5579 or hfoor@dioceseaj.org.

Gabriel Project Baby Bottle Campaign: The Father O'Hanlon council of the Knights of Columbus thanks everyone who participated in the Gabriel Project Baby Bottle Campaign. Your donations totaled $8,057. The council also made a donation to bring the total raised for the Gabriel Project to $9,057! Your generosity and prayers will help many babies and mothers in need.
