Gabriel Project Babies: The Gabriel Project is a Pro-Life movement offering parish-based pastoral care to women in a crisis pregnancy. It is the goal of the Gabriel Project to help such women with all their practical needs, as well as offering them unconditional love in an apostolate of friendship throughout their pregnancy. For more information about the Gabriel Project, please call 867-5511. If you can help the Gabriel Project, please put your monetary donations in the Sunday collection, or mail them to Betty Gummo, c/o Our Lady of Victory Church, 820 Westerly Parkway, State College, PA 16801. A check made out to "The Gabriel Project/OLV" (a 501c3 non-profit) can be used as a tax deduction. Donations of diapers, onesies, etc., can be placed in the wooden bin in the back of the church, marked The Gabriel Project. Due to liability, we cannot accept used toys, strollers, cribs or car seats. Thank you very much for your support for these families, especially with prayer.

January 10, 2021: The Baptism of the Lord (Mark 1:7-11) The gospel today points to Jesus' humanity; like us He needed RECOGNITION ("You are my Son"), AFFECTION ("My Beloved Son") and AFFIRMATION ("With you I am well pleased."). In our families it is easy to focus on irritating behaviors and take for granted all the positives. This New Year take a lesson from God the Father, be an AFFIRMER and not a BLAMER. State College Food Bank - During the COVID 19 crisis, the Food Bank needs your help now more than ever. You can support the Food Bank from home by giving online at scfoodbank.org. You can make a one-time or recurring gift. The Food Bank assists not only those who meet specific financial qualifications but also those who may exceed these qualifications and are still facing financial difficulty. Financial donations to the Food Bank give their staff the flexibility to purchase in-demand items in bulk and serve as many individuals and families as possible, regardless of income. The items purchased with private funds can also be shared with other food pantries and social service agencies in outlying areas, if and when they need extra support. Checks can also be mailed to State College Food Bank, 1321 South Atherton St., State College, PA 16801.

The Needs list includes tomato product (diced, sauce, stewed), peanut butter and jelly, canned tuna and canned chicken, mac & cheese, canned pasta (Chef Boyardee, Spaghettios, etc.), flour (5 lb. bags), laundry detergent, liquid dish soap and liquid hand soap. More details are available at their website scfoodbank.org. The Food Bank will NO LONGER pick up food donations at OLV. If you have a donation, you are asked to drop it off at the FOOD BANK at 1321 South Atherton St., State College. The donation drop off hours are Monday, 9:00am to 4:30pm. Wednesday, 9:00am to 3:30pm and Friday, 9:00am to 3:30pm. Please do not leave donations outside when the food bank is closed.

A Reminder: If you do not feel safe attending Mass, please check out our YouTube Channel and Facebook page: OLV State College, to view OLV's Mass. 4:00PM Mass on Saturday is also live streamed on OLV State College Facebook page. Communion will be distributed on Sunday at 10:30am after you have viewed Mass. Also please check out our website www.ourladyofvictory.com.

FROM THE PASTOR.....MY DEAR PARISH FAMILY, this weekend we celebrate the BAPTISM OF OUR LORD. The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord marks the official end of the Christmas season. It's also an annual occasion for many to ask, "Why was Jesus baptized?" After all, he is the sinless, divine Son of God, and the baptism that John the Baptist administered was "a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins" (Mark 1:4). Christian baptism is of course greater than John's baptism, even as Jesus himself is far greater than John (Matt. 3:14, John 3:30). Christian baptism not only forgives sins but infuses the life of God into the soul, making us God's children. And the origin of this sacrament is Jesus' own baptism. Jesus had no need to be cleansed by the waters of baptism, for he had no sins to be washed away. Rather, he sanctified the waters by his descent into them.

Pope Benedict XVI (writing as Joseph Ratzinger), in his Jesus of Nazareth, offers some illuminating insights on all this. There's a whole chapter in the book on Jesus' baptism, but here are a few of his key thoughts. First, in antiquity water conjured up two distinct images: death and life. Benedict notes: On the one hand, immersion into the waters is a symbol of death, which recalls the death symbolism of the annihilating, destructive power of the ocean flood. The ancient mind perceived the ocean as a permanent threat to the cosmos, to the earth; it was the primeval flood that might submerge all life . . . But the flowing waters of the river are above all a symbol of life (15-16). Even the physical act of baptism, especially baptism by immersion, represents death and new life: the descent into the waters is a form of death and burial; the rising to a new life is an icon of resurrection. Looking at the events (of Christ's baptism) in light of the Cross and Resurrection, the Christian people realized what happened: Jesus loaded the burden of all mankind's guilt upon his shoulders; he bore it down into the depths of the Jordan. He inaugurated his public activity by stepping into the place of sinners. His inaugural gesture is an anticipation of the Cross. He is, as it were, the true Jonah who said to the crew of the ship, "Take me and throw me into the sea" (Jon. 1:12). The baptism is an acceptance of death for the sins of humanity, and the voice that calls out "This is my beloved Son" over the baptismal waters is an anticipatory reference to the Resurrection. This also explains why, in his own discourses, Jesus uses the word "baptism" to refer to his death (18).

The Eastern traditions of iconography pick up on many of these themes, as the current pope emeritus elucidates: The icon of Jesus' baptism depicts the water as a liquid tomb having the form of a dark cavern, which is, in turn, the iconographic sign of Hades, the underworld, or hell. Jesus' descent into this watery tomb, into this inferno that envelops him from every side, is thus an anticipation of his act of descending into the underworld . . . John Chrysostom writes: "Going down into the water and emerging again are the image of the descent into hell and the Resurrection" (19). Jesus' baptism not only is deeply intertwined with the salvific events of the Passion and of Easter, but it also reveals him to be a new and greater Moses. In the Easter Vigil liturgy of the Roman Rite, the paschal candle is plunged into the waters of the baptismal font, much as Moses stretched his staff over the waters of the Red Sea, which God parted (Ex. 14:21-31). This created a means of escape for God's people from the stampeding armies of Egypt and its Pharaoh, which are types of sin and Satan. Saint Paul, looking back at this event, refers to it as a pre-figurement of Christian baptism (1 Cor. 10:2), which frees us from the rule of sin and death. The baptism of the Lord also reminds us, of course, of our own baptism. The Church teaches that baptism not only lets us participate in Jesus' victory over sin and death, but calls us to our own personal holiness and apostolate (sharing our faith). When you boil it all down, this is the essence of how we fulfill our baptismal mandate to become saints. (Summary reprinted from CATHOLIC ANSWERS).

St. Benedict Church Bible Study continues on Saturday mornings, (9:30-11:30 AM). The St. Benedict Church weekly Bible Study continues on Zoom. The new study is titled, "Understanding the Word of God Written in the Words of Man." This will be an in-depth look at the Bible through the lens of Salvation History as God reveals himself and his plan to us. Please contact Deacon Michael if you would like to join the group (Michael.russo@atlantibb.net).

Your email address will be needed to send the Zoom link to you. Zoom is easy to use on your computer or mobile device and detailed instructions and assistance will be provided. Don't worry if you have missed a session or are unable to join us on Saturday mornings. Each Bible Study class will be recorded and offered on YouTube not only for our diocese but to anyone who would like to hear the study, including our Christian brothers and sisters in other parts of the world. Handouts can be downloaded from the St. Benedict Church website (stbenedictchurch.org) website. All are welcome!

Tune into WJVM 90.3-FM & WEJO 104.7-FM in 2021!

We would like to express our gratitude to all of those who supported our ministry in 2020 with recordings, financial contributions, prayers, and listenership. Donation letters will be mailed to our year-end supporters and our sustaining pledge donors by January 31st. If you do not receive the summary or require a duplicate from an earlier one-time gift, please contact Sheryl Balkey at (814)238-6288 or voiceofdivinemercy@gmail.com.

Remember, just $100/day keeps our Catholic voice on the air. Our 501(c)3 organization is volunteer-run and your tax-deductible donation may be mailed to: Voice of Divine Mercy, PO Box 862, State College, PA 16804-0862.

Lastly, we ask that you keep the homebound, hospitalized, and imprisoned members of our listening audience in your prayers throughout the winter.

The Friar's Nook Gift Shop - Business hours are Monday-Saturday 10:00 AM-4:00 PM (always closed on Sundays). The address is 793 Monastery Road, Hollidaysburg and our phone number 814-695-3802 if you have any questions. Please follow us on Facebook for updates!
