THE GABRIEL PROJECT

The Gabriel Project is a Pro-Life Movement offering parish-based pastoral care to women in a crisis pregnancy.

Its goal is to help pregnant women with all their practical needs, as well as offering them unconditional love in an apostolate of friendship throughout their pregnancy. If you are in need of the Gabriel Project, please call 814-867-5511.

The Gabriel Project is working with families whose babies were born in May, all boys! Newborn, 0-3 months boy clothes, and boys clothes up to 9 months are really needed right now. Also donations of newborn sizes, such as diapers (newborn and size 1), onesies, etc., are especially needed. Items can be placed in the wooden bin in the back of the Church, marked Gabriel Project. They are also still working with the family that lost everything due to a fire. Checks can be made payable to Our Lady of Victory, and put Gabriel Project on the subject line. Due to liability, we cannot accept used toys, strollers, cribs or car seats. Thank you very much for your support for these families, especially with prayer. Also, please continue to pray for these mothers and their unborn babies.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time (July 11): God called Amariah from his daily life to carry forth a mission. Jesus commissioned the 12 apostles to preach the Gospel. He gives them the authority they need to do so, and sends them forth. In the second reading St. Paul praises the Lord and reminds us that it is "God whose chose us in Him, before the foundation of the world."

Like Amariah and the 12 apostles, each one of us has been called to carry out a mission, to be a Christian disciple and proclaim the Gospel in all we say and do. He has given us everything that we need to do that. Every gift we have comes by way of gift from the Lord.

It is our responsibility to make the choice to recognize those gifts and to use them for God's purposes, to give glory to God through sharing our time, talent and treasures with all those in need. (Stewardship Reflection, Catholic Stewardship Consultants, Inc. 2012/7/03)

Saint Joseph - Patris Corde: A Tender and Loving Father, Hope for the Hopeless

When Joseph had to take Mary and travel to Bethlehem to register for the great census they were unable to find a place to spend the night. Joseph persisted until he found a mere stable where Jesus was born. Joseph is the privileged witness of the birth, which happens under difficult conditions. Joseph cared for Mary and the Child Jesus. Joseph saw Jesus grow daily. By their bold faith, their lively hope, and fruitful love, Mary and Joseph are examples to all believers and parents.

The history of salvation is worked out "in hope against hope" through our weaknesses. All too often, we think that God works only through our better parts, yet most of his plans are realized in and despite our frailty. Since this is a part of the entire economy of salvation, we must learn to look upon our weaknesses with tender mercy." St. Joseph, a tender loving father, hope for the hopeless, pray for us.

(Pope Francis Apostolic Letter Patris Corde, 2. Dec. 8, 2020; Jacques Gauthier, Catholic Book Publishing, N.J., 2014) 2021, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown Liturgy Committee, Liturgy Office, Mary, Mother of the Church Pastoral Center, 2713 W. Chestnut Avenue, Altoona, PA 16601.

The Permanent Diaconate has been a restored Office of the Church since 1968.

Who and What's a Deacon?

A Deacon is an ordained minister of the Catholic Church. There are three groups, or Orders of ordained ministers in the Church: Bishops, Priests (presbyters) and Deacons. Deacons are ordained as a sacramental sign to the Church and to the world of Christ, who came "to serve and not to be served." The entire Church is called by Christ to serve, and the Deacon, in virtue of his sacramental ordination and through his various ministries, is to be a servant in a servant-Church.

What are these "various ministries" of the Deacon?

All ordained ministers in the Church are called to functions of Word, Sacrament, Prayer and Charity; but Bishops, Priests and Deacons exercise these functions in various ways.

- As ministers of Word, Deacons: Proclaim the Gospel; Preach and teach in the name of the Church; Provide spiritual direction and counsel.
- As ministers of Sacrament and Prayer Deacons: Baptize; Witness marriages; Function as ORDINARY ministers of the Eucharist; Assist Priests and Bishops at Mass; Lead the faithful in prayer and Eucharistic Devotions; Assist with Christian Burial by conducting Vigils, Services without a Mass, and Committals.
- As ministers of Charity, Deacons: Are leaders in identifying the needs of others, then marshalling the Church's resources to meet those needs. The extent that the Deacon does these various things depends of course on their schedule and availability. It is important to note that these roles and ministries of the Deacon are the norm, not the exception. In other words, these are not things the Deacon does "if the Priest is not available," etc., but rather, things that he can and normally should do by virtue of his office. In this way, although his Office is different from that of the Priest, it is also one that is shared with the Priest. Deacons however, are not able to: Offer Mass; Hear Confessions; Anoint the sick. These ministries remain those reserved to Priests. Together, the Pastor and Deacon share the total pastoral, sacramental, and teaching ministry of the Church.

The Attire and Title of the Permanent Deacon:

Although very similar, the vestments of the Deacon and those of the Priest are different. Both wear a white alb. However, the colored stole of the Deacon is worn diagonally while that of the Priest is worn vertically. The outer garment of the Deacon is called a dalmatic and it has sleeves. That of the Priest is called a chasuble and does not have sleeves. The proper formal non-liturgical attire for a Priest is of course the clerical collar. That of the Deacon is normally a tie and jacket. Sometimes the Deacon wears a lapel pin, which is a cross with a diagonal stole on top of it. This is the symbol of the office of the Permanent Diaconate.

For more information on the Permanent Diaconate please visit us online at www.dioceseaj.org/Diaconate/ or by contacting: Deacon David Lapinski (dcfl@ourladyofvictory.com) or Deacon Michael Russo, Director at (814) 288-3036. All are welcome!
